

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2626 - SB 2630

February 20, 2018

SUMMARY OF BILL: Limits when a committee of the Senate or the House of Representatives can adopt a resolution to require the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) to open investigative records to only instances when the General Assembly is not in session.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Under current law, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 10-7-504, the TBI shall open such records for inspection upon a resolution being adopted in either the Senate or House of Representatives or by a standing or joint committee of either the Senate or House of Representatives.
- The proposed language would limit the ability of a standing or joint committee to adopt such a resolution to only those times when the General Assembly is not in session.
- Limiting when a standing or joint committee can pass a resolution, specifically to require TBI to open certain investigative records; will not result in any significant fiscal impact to state government.
